Subject: Mandate M/499 – Mandate to CEN, CENELEC and ETSI in the field of the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (RoHS recast directive 2011/65/EU)

Dear Mrs Brykman,

The CEN Technical Board has duly examined the terms of Mandate M/499 in the field of the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (RoHS recast directive 2011/65/EU).

BT has concluded that no work will be undertaken by CEN since according to our work repartition the response to M/499 falls under the responsibility of CENELEC, which has accepted the terms of this mandate.

Yours sincerely,

po Elena SANTIAGO CID
Director General

CEN/BT Resolution:

BT C145/2011

BT

- having considered the terms of EC Mandate M/499 'Standardization mandate to CEN, CENELEC and ETSI in the field of the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (RoHS Recast directive 2011/65/EU)';
- concludes that, according to the work repartition between CEN and CENELEC, no work will be undertaken in CEN in reply to this mandate, bearing in mind that it has been submitted to the CENELEC Technical Board for acceptance.

This resolution is applicable as from: 2011-12-14
